

“Food-for-Thought” lunch
Drone Warfare: Awareness and Action

Sunday, March 11, 2018

Lunch 12:15 pm — Workshop 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm

Unitarian Universalist Society of Oneonta (UUSO)

12 Ford Ave, Oneonta, NY

Sponsored by the Social Action Team of the UUSO

In this two-hour workshop, participants will grow in understanding of the moral hazards of U.S. drone warfare, and grow in awareness of the communities that live and die under U.S. drones. Participants will also learn specific talking points to engage the press and public officials, and organize for action.

FREE
PUBLIC INVITED
Childcare available*

Workshop leader:
Rev. Chris Antal, a Unitarian Universalist minister, served as a US military chaplain and resigned in protest over US drone warfare policy.

*Childcare available—Contact UUSO Office by Thursday, March 8, 2018, with ages and number of children.
Email uuso@uuso.org or call 607-432-3491.
Free parking in Dietz Street Municipal Parking Lot across from UUSO.

www.uuso.org